May 27, 2018

Go . . . and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

THE RESPONSIBILITY OF OUR FAITH

Today is a day simply to ponder the fact that in baptism we were claimed by God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. The first reading from Deuteronomy prompts us to fix in our hearts the truth that God is the Lord of both heaven and earth and there is no other god. Saint Paul reminds us that, because we received the Spirit of adoption in baptism, we are now children of God. In the Gospel Jesus charges us with the responsibility to make other disciples. These realities make today's solemnity a day of praise, adoration, and responsibility. It is a fitting day to thank God for the absolutely free gift of faith that we were given in baptism. It is also a day to ask God for strength to take on the responsibility of sharing that faith with others.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Ask now of the days of old: Did anything so great ever happen before? Was it ever heard of? (Deuteronomy 4:32-34, 39-40).

Psalm — Blessed the people the Lord has chosen to be his own (Psalm 33).

Second Reading — You received a Spirit of adoption through whom we cry, "Abba, Father!" (Romans 8:14-17).

Gospel — I am with you always, until the end of the age (Matthew 28:16-20).

Thank you for supporting Catholic Charities Sunday

Thank you to Pastors and Parishioners throughout San Francisco, Marin, and San Mateo Counties, for your recent generous donations during the annual Catholic Charities Sunday second collection at your parishes. Founded in 1907 and rooted in our faith traditions and justice, Catholic Charities supports families, aging adults and adults with disabilities, and youth through social services and opportunities for healthy growth and development. Because of donations earlier this month, we can continue working to care for our brothers and sisters in need. Together, we are preaching the Gospel everyday by strengthening families and reducing poverty; one person, one family, one child at a time.

If you were not able to make it to Mass on Sunday, but still want to support Catholic Charities second collection, you can easily make a gift now by donating securely online at CatholicCharitiesSF.org/CCSunday.

The Parish office will be closed on Monday, May 28th in observance of the Memorial Day holiday.

From Archbishop Cordileone

"The theme for this year's Annual Appeal is 'One Body, One Christ.' In addition to changing lives, the AAA provides a unique opportunity for each of us to collaborate with our fellow Catholics as 'One Body' in the eighty-seven parishes of the Archdiocese. Together, we are able to offer significant support to such varied and critical needs as parish ministries and schools, clergy, young adults, social ministries, ecumenical efforts, and the greater Church."

Called to Care and Share

June 10th is Appeal Sunday and everyone's participation is essential to the success of the 2018 Archdiocesan Annual Appeal. Each household is asked to make a special effort to give a proportionate gift to support the work of the Church.

Please join other Catholics in our Archdiocese by supporting this once-a-year Appeal for the ministries and services of our archdiocesan Church.
