

Twenty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time
September 9, 2018

Did not God choose those who are poor in the world to be rich in faith and heirs to the kingdom?

— James 2:5

SEE BEYOND OUTWARD APPEARANCES

The phrase “Sunday best” has lost much of its meaning in our society today. Some lament the loss of people dressing up for church on Sunday; others think it’s a healthy sign that we’re as casual in attire gathered before the Lord as we are elsewhere. No matter which school of thought on this topic we belong to, James would probably chastise us. In either case, we are still focused on external appearance, mistaking it for some sort of favored position before God. True, James criticizes the community that favors the rich and well-dressed while ostracizing the poorly clothed, but even more he criticizes the making of distinctions, making choices based on criteria that having nothing to do with the reign of God. James might turn our attention to the reign of God described by Isaiah, in which people are healed and the earth becomes ripe to bear fruit. Jesus today is focused on this reign of God, healing a Gentile man in a region hostile to his Jewish faith, not mindful of the man’s origins or clothing or status or ability to repay. Isaiah, James, and Jesus in Mark’s Gospel all call us to look more deeply to find where the will of God needs to be done, and has been done, on earth as in heaven.

A Wonderful Service and Volunteer Opportunity at St. Mary’s Cathedral

Catholic Charities is seeking a San Francisco parish group to host a Handicapables luncheon at St. Mary’s Cathedral one Saturday a year from noon to 2:00 PM. Parish volunteers would provide the lunch at the Cathedral, and host the guests by welcoming and visiting with them. Catholic Charities helps manage the Handicapables program, which provides seniors and adults with disabilities the opportunity to gather once a month at St. Mary’s Cathedral to socialize over lunch, celebrate Mass as an option, and enjoy each other’s company. Sometimes entertainment and/or a speaker are provided. The San Francisco Fire Department currently provides escort assistance for the transportation vehicle to and from the lunch. We are hoping to get a total of 11 different parishes to each host one luncheon at the Cathedral during the year. If you are interested, please contact Diane Prell by email at: DPrell@CatholicCharitiesSF.org or by calling 415-452-3500.
