

The Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph
December 29, 2019

SALVATION IN DAILY LIFE

This Sunday is the feast of the Holy Family, which comes on the first Sunday after Christmas Day. Today's feast celebrates how the humanity of Jesus (including his entire family life) has brought saving significance into the daily rhythms of our human family life.

The scriptures offer instruction and encouragement on how to share—within our families, parish families, and the wider human family—the love that God shares with us in Jesus. Selections from Sirach, Psalm 128, and Colossians encourage us to reflect divine love and thus find holiness in all our human relationships. The reading from Matthew's Gospel offers a living example of love in the actions Joseph took to protect his young family from danger and to nurture them within the larger family of faith of their time.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Those who honor and comfort their parents shall never be forgotten (Sirach 3:2-6, 12-14).

Psalm — Blessed are those who fear the Lord and walk in his ways (Psalm 128).

Second Reading — You are called into one body. Bear with one another; forgive one another; let Christ's peace control you (Colossians 3:12-21 [12-17]).

Gospel — Joseph rose, took the child and his mother, and fled to Egypt (Matthew 2:13-15, 19-23).

SPECIAL CHRISTMAS GRATITUDE

I would like to say "Thank You" to all the parishioners for their gifts, cards, and prayers during the Holy Season. I am grateful to the members of the Art and Environment Committee for decorating our Church so beautifully, the parish choirs and organist for their uplifting music ministry during the Holy Season, and to all who generously donated festive Poinsettias to the Church. I would also like to thank all the organizations and individuals and sponsors who contributed to our nine Novena Masses in preparation for Christmas.
