

Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time
November 18, 2018

Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.

— Mark 13:31

ENCOURAGEMENT

This Sunday's Gospel is our final selection from Mark for this liturgical year. It is taken from the end of Jesus' teaching in Jerusalem immediately preceding the account of his arrest and passion. In it Jesus gives his disciples hope to sustain them through his passion and death and any persecution or suffering that they would encounter after his resurrection.

The words from the book of Daniel also provided hope and encouragement to the people of Daniel's time. The encouragement in these scriptures is meant for us as well, for none of us will escape tribulation in our lives. Followers of Jesus will be able to endure suffering with joyful hope, knowing that Christ's love will lead us along the way of discipleship and give us eternal life with God.

If you make your offertory donation by check, without using parishioner envelopes, it would be most helpful if you placed your parishioner/envelope # in the "memo" section of the check.

This helps us input your donation to the offertory data system. We will not be responsible for donations not credited due to missing envelope numbers (or not having a Sunday collection envelope.)

On Thursday, November 22nd, our Parish will celebrate a special Thanksgiving Day Mass at 9:00 am. During the offertory procession you may want to bring food to be collected for the needy. Only canned items please. (no expired food!) Come with your family to give thanks and praise to God. The parish will be closed November 22nd in observance of the Thanksgiving holiday.

The 2018 Novena and Christmas Mass schedule will be mailed shortly to your homes. Included with the schedule will be a book of raffle tickets for our Parish raffle to be held on December 23rd

All parishioners are invited to attend the ICF Christmas Luncheon, on Monday, December 3rd in Cantwell Hall. No Host Cocktails 11:00 am, Lunch at Noon.
